CHAIRMAN'S REVIEW

OUR GROWTH STORY HAS ONLY JUST BEGUN.

The message that I wish to send out to shareholders is that we are at an inflection point in our existence.

The Company reported a 24.57% revenue growth and 39% PAT growth in the last financial year when consumer sentiment was muted and fresh apartment offtake – one of the biggest purchase-drivers of our products – was at its weakest in years.

India is going through a paradigm shift. The newly-instated Central Government's growth-inducing policies augur well for the country. The government is prioritising investments in order to usher in infrastructural development, kickstart policy reform and enhance business ease. In our view, these structural shifts will boost prosperity, disposable incomes, home ownership and the offtake of tableware. There is also a significant lifestyle transformation taking shape which is manifesting in greater home pride. There is a visible transition from how much money homeowners can save to how they can graduate to a better lifestyle. Besides, tableware opportunities are unfolding through price-quality segmentation and other kitchen product categories.

At La Opala, we have prudently factored these emerging realities into our business strategy.

We gleaned from the nature and speed of offtake and dealer/consumer feedback the key learning that we needed to scale our manufacturing capacities. We made a corresponding investment to address the growing demand for our products, the full impact of which will be reflected 2015-16 onwards.

We embarked on initiatives to introduce complementary products like beverage (tea and coffee) cups and saucers from our Sitargunj plant, the introduction will commence in 2015-16.

We introduced prudently sourced and rebranded borosilicate products to carve out a larger slice of the customer's wallet.

We made a private placement of shares to finance our expansion.

We widened and deepened our distribution network during the year under review.

By embarking on such proactive initiatives in 2014-15, we strengthened our business foundation adequately to address the potential growing needs of the future.

I would like to communicate to La Opala RG Limited's shareholders that our growth story has only just begun.

GREAT BRANDS DON'T JUST SERVICE EXISTING DEMAND, THEY HELP TRANSFORM LIFESTYLES
BY PROVIDING COMPELLING ALTERNATIVES.

THE USUAL BRANDS MANUFACTURE PRODUCTS THAT CUSTOMERS WANT;
THE GREAT BRANDS MANUFACTURE PRODUCTS THAT THEY ANTICIPATE THEIR CUSTOMERS WILL NEED.

At La Opala, we have consistently designed, created and marketed products addressing unmet customer needs.

Even as recently as three decades back, a large part of India – urban, suburban and rural geographies notwithstanding – used stainless steel utensils because they were inexpensive, accessible and durable.

Much has happened since. Globalisation. The small screen revolution. Enhanced incomes. The internet upheaval. Lifestyle leaps.

The result of this has been most visibly reflected in enhanced home pride.

Bigger homes. Brighter drawing rooms. Better kitchens.

A trickledown benefit of the same has been most strikingly reflected in the transformation of tableware. Stainless steel has become passé. For the kind of one-time investment that a full-fledged dinner set entails, the benefits – range, colours, durability and pride – extend to all family members across more than a thousand meals a year for the next few years.

The result is that what was once considered an item of conspicuous consumption – modern tableware – is now deemed a necessity.

Being in existence for a quarter of a century, La Opala has not only been witness to this evolution in consumer mindset; it has also helped facilitate it.

Not just leveraging the growth in its category but making the growth happen as well.

At La Opala, brand success means revenue acceleration.

GREAT BRANDS ARE NOT ABOUT PRODUCTS BUT PRIDE, THEY CHANGE PERCEPTIONS — MAKING THE EXCLUSIVE USUAL AND THE USUAL EXTRAORDINARY.

FOR LONG, CUSTOMERS FELT GREAT BRANDS WERE ALL ABOUT UTILITY, DURABILITY AND FUNCTIONALITY; THEY NOW SEEM TO HAVE HAD A CHANGE OF HEART.

Great brands are about pride. Great brands are about creating new markets which others follow. People buy them not as much because they would merely last longer but because they feel good using them, owning them and displaying them.

La Opala is one such brand. Customers do not necessarily buy La Opala because they would be able to serve food better on them, or because it would be safer using them in the microwave oven.

People buy La Opala because our products make them feel good about themselves.

About the colour that we bring to their table. About the upmarket feel that we bring to their home interiors.

About how we democratise the extraordinary.

The result is that an increasing number of people buy La Opala products once, again and then yet again.

Customers buy products at one price point and then graduate higher when they need something special.

They buy both our ranges (tableware and crystalware) when they need to gift and also for personal use.

The result is that La Opala is much more than a conscious rational purchase; it is an unconscious first and last response whenever a consumer needs to buy tableware.

At La Opala, brand integrity means unquestionable trust.

GREAT BRANDS DO SOMETHING MORE THAN STAND FOR THEIR INDIVIDUAL PERSONALITY, THEY GRADUATE TO BECOME A GENERIC NAME.

IT WOULD BE REASONABLE TO ASSUME THAT WHEN CONSUMERS GO TO THE MARKETPLACE, THEY GENERALLY ASK STORE KEEPERS, 'PLEASE SHOW ME A GOOD TABLEWARE BRAND.'

The reality is that they say, 'Show me La Opala.'

Over the last 25 years of its existence, La Opala has evolved from just being one of the players in India's tableware sector to someone special.

There are a number of crockery players in India; La Opala is possibly the only listed organised pure-play tableware Company.

There are many tableware brands in India; La Opala is possibly the only large homegrown Indian brand that has outperformed international competition and emerged with the largest domestic market share through sheer size, spread and spend.

Over the years, La Opala has evolved from the name of a specific brand or Company into a generic name for tableware in India.

Graduating from being a category player to defining the category itself.

At La Opala, brand success means category identity.

GREAT BRANDS DO MORE THAN JUST FIGHT FOR MARKET SHARE, THEY CREATE MARKETS INSTEAD.

THE ONE WAY THAT BRANDS DO BUSINESS IS BY ADDRESSING THE EXISTING DEMAND OF THE DAY.

La Opala does it differently.

We not only created products for which no perceived demand evidently exists but also developed new product categories like 100% veg tableware and dinner set category for small-sized families, among others. We back our judgment, we seed demand, we upgrade lifestyles, we stoke demand and progressively create markets.

When we went into business, there was negligible awareness for tableware in India.

We highlighted product superiority, offered a superior price-value proposition, fuelled home pride and extended evolving global consumer preferences to India.

We were the right brand at the right place and right time.

We helped grow the market and in so doing, grew our presence as well.

At La Opala, brand effectiveness means lifestyle transformation.

GREAT BRANDS DON'T JUST RAISE PRICES, THEY ENHANCE PRODUCT AFFORDABILITY.

THE USUAL BRANDS PASS COST INCREASES TO CONSUMERS AND ENHANCE PROFITS.

Great brands innovate to neutralise the impact of cost increases.

By increasing production capacities. By recouping what might have been lost through economies-of-scale. By removing procedural bottlenecks. And in so doing, report higher profits and consistent value accretion.

This is precisely what La Opala did in the years leading to 2014-15. The Company was faced with escalating power and fuel expenses and increase in raw material and people costs.

In cognisance of the changing business dynamics, La Opala modified its product mix in a manner and calibrated prices in a farsighted manner to cater to consumer needs effectively. This led to an increase in demand and production, thereby creating a virtuous cycle.

At La Opala, brand success means affordable luxury.

GREAT BRANDS DO SOMETHING MORE THAN MERELY INVEST IN CAPACITY TO ADDRESS MARKET GROWTH, THEY CREATE A CAPACITY CLIFF TO DETER INTENDING COMPETITION.

LA OPALA WENT INTO BUSINESS
IN 1988 WITH A LIMITED CAPACITY.

The Company became one of the few globally to make the most of a zealously guarded technology.

Over the years, the Company evolved products and technologies with the objective to provide a world-class product to consumers.

At La Opala, we invested in capacity expansion with the singular objective of addressing prevailing and incipient demand. Besides, each time we invested in incremental capacity, we did so with the objective to either match or moderate the Company's benchmark of capital cost per tonne (post-inflation). And each time we invested in capacity, we made it progressively difficult for our competitors to play catch up.

This sizeable expansion, possibly the largest ever attempted in India's tableware sector, means that we will now have larger capacity against which we can amortise our fixed investments and brand spending, considerably lower than what it is for our rivals.

Consequently, our substantial capacity growth will not only provide us with the opportunity to widen our national presence in line with our growing brand, but also will potentially strengthen our industry position.

At La Opala, brand success means getting bigger and better.

GREAT BRANDS ARE NOT JUST ABOUT ONE SUCCESSFUL PRODUCT, THEY ARE ABOUT PROFITABLE LINE EXTENSIONS.

A GOOD BRAND PRODUCES REASONABLE LINEAR GROWTH THROUGH A SINGLE SUCCESSFUL PRODUCT.

A great brand spins off successful and periodic line extensions, consolidating profitability.

Over the years, this is precisely what we have pulled off time and again.

The Company grew its business of opal tableware and crystalware, often moving the products through the same distribution network, resulting in a superior coverage of distribution overheads on the one hand and generating higher revenues per dealer on the other.

In 2014-15, the Company embarked on two initiatives to strengthen brand recall and logistical capabilities.

The Company intends to introduce complementary products that would be generally purchased along with the established opalware range of products. The inherent ability to provide a full-fledged package will strengthen the attractiveness of the Company's portfolio, enlarging as well as accelerating sales.

The Company introduced the 'cook-and-serve' range of borosilicate products, an asset-light approach to address the growing need of working professionals to heat and cook food.

By leveraging our entrenched distribution network, we will not only infuse our brand with a fresh dose of novelty and excitement, but also create multi-revenue product streams that progressively strengthen our topline.

At La Opala, brand salience means consistent redefinition.

GREAT BRANDS DON'T JUST GENERATE EARNINGS TO PUT INTO THEIR BALANCE SHEETS, THEY LEVERAGE THEIR BALANCE SHEETS TO PUT INTO EARNINGS.

A USUAL BRAND GENERATES A SURPLUS AND PLOUGHS IT INTO ITS BALANCE SHEET.
LA OPALA RESOLVED TO REVERSE THE SEQUENCE.

Over the last year, we rightsized our Balance Sheet with the objective to create momentum that would make it possible for the Company to deploy attractive free cash to capitalise on emerging prospects.

La Opala reported a profit after tax of ₹41.74 crore and a return on equity of 29.47% in 2014-15. Immediately, the Company's market capitalisation strengthened from ₹754.12 crore (as of 31st March 2014) to ₹2,102.06 crore (as of 31st March 2015).

Rather than growing the Company the purely organic way, the management at La Opala responded laterally. The Company made a private placement of 5,02,468 shares for ₹10 each (at a premium of ₹1,090/share on preferential basis) in 2014-15, mobilising an aggregate ₹55.27 crore.

This mobilisation was made to augment the resources of the Company for general corporate purposes and capacity expansion at both the plants.

The investment has generated the following upsides for the Company: what could have been an expansion funded through debt and internal accruals was instead financed through an equity outlay without increasing any related interest outflow. This will allow the expansion to be progressively scaled minus any conceivable financial stress; the investment can potentially generate incremental free cash without repayment liabilities, creating a virtuous cashflow-investments-returns cycle.

At La Opala, brand relevance means strength and sustainability.

OPERATIONAL REVIEW

SUSHIL JHUNJHUNWALA, VICE CHAIRMAN AND MANAGING DIRECTOR, REVIEWS
THE COMPANY'S 2014-15 PERFORMANCE AND LOOKS AHEAD OPTIMISTICALLY

Q: WERE YOU PLEASED WITH THE PERFORMANCE OF THE COMPANY
DURING THE YEAR UNDER REVIEW?

We were pleased with the working of the Company during the financial year under review for a number of reasons. The contextual landscape is always the most important index by which the performance of a Company needs to be judged. In our case, the industry scenario was as discouraging as the prevailing consumer sentiment. This subsequently affected residential apartment offtake across the country. Nonetheless, we clocked profitable growth for a number of successive years. Our revenues grew by 24.57% but our EBIDTA grew by 27.11%, which indicates that the long-term potency of our brand far outweighed the short-term considerations of the economic slowdown. Besides, every relevant financial number reported by the Company was better than that of the previous year, which indicates that even as the Indian economy continued to remain sluggish, we went ahead and reported the best ever year in our existence.

Q: WHAT WERE SOME OF THE REASONS THAT MADE THIS HAPPEN?

This question needs to be answered with an insight into two perspectives. First, the macro: the country is passing through a structural lifestyle shift wherein the urge to graduate from traditional plates is considered more imperative and relatively inelastic compared to any sluggishness in disposable incomes and advent of economic slowdowns.

People are opting for a better quality of tableware because there is a greater need to enhance the quality of one's lifestyle, a greater need to bring world-class practices home and a greater need to inculcate hygienic eating habits. And best of all, all this comes at a fraction of most other home building and decoration costs.

Q: WHAT'S THE OTHER?

Yes, the micro perspective: the growth that we generated in the last few years was the result of distribution across urban India. At La Opala, we embarked on our second decisive push during the year under review. We increased our dealer density in a specific geography. This was essential because of two reasons: until now we had widened our presence across the country with a solely urban emphasis; we recognised that the time has now come to extend from width to depth and address the growing need for enhanced lifestyles in suburban India; we recognised the need to strengthen our distribution in anticipation of a capacity increase.

Q: WHAT ARE SOME OF THE BUSINESS-STRENGTHENING INITIATIVES THAT TRANSPIRED DURING THE YEAR UNDER REVIEW?

There were two initiatives that stood out during the year under review.

One, we mobilised adequate funds following a private placement to West Bridge. This mobilisation will fund our capacity expansion in our Sitargunj plant, in addition to the working capital required to sustain sales growth. At La Opala, we believe that by funding this expansion entirely through our net worth, we have de-risked our business enough to address unforeseen marketplace aberrations.

Two, the expansion will be complementary to our existing profile; the addition of tea and coffee range products will visibly broaden our portfolio. The result is that through the expansion we are not attempting to sell more of the same; we are seeding the market to embrace better and newer products.

Q: WHY IS THIS EXPANSION NECESSARY?

At La Opala, we believe that we have arrived at an inflection point in the country's lifestyle existence. The objective is not merely to expand and address growing demand; the objective is to create a formidable entry barrier for prospective competitors. By having invested in additional manufacturing capacity financed completely by our net worth represents a lofty cliff in management terms. It is our conviction that the perceptive rightsizing of our Balance Sheet will make it possible to generate larger returns in quicker time, making it possible for the Company to widen its competitive moat even further.

Q: WHAT WAS THE OTHER POSITIVE FEATURE OF THE COMPANY'S PERFORMANCE DURING THE YEAR UNDER REVIEW?

At La Opala, we increased the proportion of our exports. We widened our international footprint from 30 to 40 countries. Besides, we exported products under our own name with the objective to strengthen our brand. I am pleased to state that the delicate balance we have struck between exports and domestic revenues will only strengthen our business model and enhance our marketing flexibility.

OUR BUSINESS MODEL

LA OPALA RG LIMITED WENT INTO BUSINESS AT A TIME WHEN THE OPAL TABLEWARE MARKET IN INDIA WAS VIRTUALLY NON-EXISTENT. THE COMPANY WAS CREATED WITH THE VISION TO CREATE DESIRE, MANUFACTURE PRODUCTS AND ENRICH LIFESTYLES.

In the late 1980s, corporates addressing the tableware market in India either imported products or worked with traditional materials like glass, bone china and metal. The growth of the industry was handicapped on account of constrained budgets, dearth of scale and a stark absence of aspiration among the people at large.

Since inception, La Opala worked with the objective to seed a market and account for the largest share of it. More than a quarter of a century later, the Company possesses peer respect, an industry-leading position, a strong Balance Sheet and a market capitalisation of ₹2,102.06 crore as of 31st March 2015.

This differentiation was achieved through a business model that focused on enhancing value for all those who provided material to the Company, worked with it, purchased from it and invested in it. The result is that we gradually strengthened our brand, grew volumes, protected margins, increased surpluses, shared a progressively larger portion of this surplus with our shareholders and redeployed the rest into the business with the objective to extend this virtuous cycle – enhancing value for the entire stakeholder family.

SUSTAINABLE GROWTH

We have built our business around long-term sustainability. We believe we will endure as a business corporation if we recognise that there must be adequate value left on the table for our vendors, dealers, customers, employees and ourselves. The result is that a farsightedness guides our decision-making.

BRAND STRENGTH

Over the years, La Opala has invested extensively in its brand. The brand evoked desired recalls of 'excellent quality', 'vibrant design' and 'proven longevity'. The quality and quantum of brand spend represent a business moat, making it difficult for others to mobilise the kind of resources to outspend the Company and capture mind space. The strength of the brand was reflected in the constantly diminishing receivables cycle.

CORPORATISED APPROACH

The business is marked by the constant management of variables through a process-driven approach. The Company has at its helm a purposeful balance of promoter-owners and professional managers. Whereas the promoters indulge in hands-on business review, the managers complement their efforts through dedicated day-to-day supervision across functions. Furthermore, there has been minimal attrition at the senior management level for over a decade.

PURE-PLAY IDENTITY

La Opala is a focused player providing products addressing the growing demand of the Indian (and global) tableware, crystalware and borosilicate cookware products. Over the years, this focus has strengthened our brand among customers and investors (where we are recognised as India's only listed pure-play tableware Company). The result is that our revenue growth at a CAGR of 24.03% (in the three years leading to 2014-15) outperformed the sectoral growth rate.

EXPANSIVE RANGE

La Opala offers the widest price bandwidth within the products of its presence. The Company's opal tableware and crystalware range extends across all the price points starting as low as ₹200. This extensive price range is punctuated with products at affordable price points, making it possible for consumers to graduate their product preferences with nominal increments, enhancing their lifestyles.

MULTI-PRODUCT REVENUES

La Opala's business model is significantly weighted towards opal tableware even as the Company has progressively widened its product portfolio towards crystalware, complementary opal tableware products and borosilicate range of cookware.

VALUE ADDITION

Even as La Opala addresses products for the mass population, one of the drivers of success is our revenue mix. The Company does not wish to be present in the spaces where it can derive the largest volumes but rather in those spaces that can generate an optimal volume-value mix. Although some products may score low on the volume-value parameter, their relevance could increase as business environments evolve.

La Opala is targeted towards the mass segment, the Diva range addresses the mid-income class and the Solitaire is directed at the premium consumer class. Over the years, we progressively evolved our brands – from an excessive dependence on La Opala (which addresses first-time buyers) to the value-added Diva segment; creating an aspirational brand journey for customers.

FISCAL EFFICIENCY

La Opala strengthened its business model around asset lightness when it selected to import a borosilicate cookware range for onward sale in India. This opens the Company to an attractive opportunity, whereby it may select to plug product gaps in the country through prudent import and sales arrangement without making expensive corresponding investments in manufacturing facilities. This outsourcing model enhances the attractiveness of the Company's Balance Sheet in what is otherwise a capital-intensive business.

FINANCIAL INTEGRITY

La Opala recognises that the most credible foundation of its business is a robust Balance Sheet. The Company selected to replace the conventional use of debt in capacity expansion with net worth (mobilised through private placement in 2014-15). The Company's debt-free status represents an adequate fiscal comfort.

CUTTING-EDGE TECHNOLOGY

At La Opala RG, we invested in state-of-the-art European technology and equipment from the best-of-its-kind manufacturers in the world. The installed technologies have significantly improved the efficiencies of the manufacturing units, reflected in higher asset utilisation and faster return on investment. Besides, these products are manufactured in electric arc furnaces, reducing emissions to nil, ensuring that both products and process are eco-friendly.

HOW LA OPALA MAY BENEFIT

Rising urbanisation will significantly expand the market for La Opala's products by increasing the penetration of premium tableware and crystalware.

La Opala will benefit from the rise in per capita income as higher income leads to higher discretionary spending which would translate into higher spending on products such as crystalware and tableware.

La Opala is uniquely positioned to gain from improving lifestyles, rising disposable income and home ownership, as it would induce people from traditional tableware such as stainless steel and melamine towards branded and premium products such as opalware. Improving lifestyles also leads to higher spending on items such as crystalware.

La Opala will benefit from the rise in nuclear families as it significantly expands the market scope for the Company's products.

La Opala will benefit from the demographic dividend by creating a large market for its products with demand coming from the bulging middle-class pool of the Indian population.

La Opala enjoys a premium brand recall in the market for tableware and is an attractive proxy for rising brand consciousness in India.

MANAGING RISK AT LA OPALA

Risk, which is the manifestation of business uncertainty, affecting corporate performance and prospects, is an integral part of all businesses but can be controlled through awareness, discipline and commitment.

RISK FROM AN ECONOMIC SLOWDOWN

A slowdown in India's economic progress could create a gap between the estimated budget and ground reality.

La Opala RG's product portfolio comprises something for everyone at competitive price points. The price range is such that the products can be easily afforded by the masses belonging to wide social strata. Besides, extensive product under-penetration implies a large room for the conversion of those using conventional tableware to modern alternatives especially in rural and suburban India.

RISK FROM UNORGANISED PLAYERS CLUTTERING THE MARKET

The profitability may get impacted because of competition from the unorganised players.

There is a rising trend among consumers preferring branded goods due to competitive pricing by the organised market players. The premium paid by the consumer over the price of non-branded goods is fairly justified by the quality, innovation, service that the brands offer.

Over the years, the Company has diversified into newer product segments and increased its brand spend significantly. The result: despite increasing competition, the Company is positioned to capture larger market share leveraging its strong reputation.

RISK OF CHANGING DESIGN PREFERENCES

Any change in customer preference in terms of design or quality could impact profitability.

The Company possesses more than two decades of insights into design preferences across regions, ages, income profiles and social backgrounds. As an effective de-risking strategy, La Opala RG introduces new designs every year, phases out designs that have reached the end of their productive life cycle and nurtures an active portfolio.

RISK FROM UNPLANNED INVESTMENTS IN CAPACITY, BRAND OR DISTRIBUTION

Inadequate investments in capacity, brand or distribution could affect viability.

La Opala RG is a zero-debt Company. During the year 2014-15, the Company generated ₹52.03 crore as cash profit. The Company even funded its recent capacity expansion project at Sitarganj through private equity placement and not opting for credit sources. The Company generates a surplus over what is required by the business. Zero debt will protect margins from declining and save the long-term interest payments.

RISING FUEL COSTS COULD AFFECT PROFITABILITY

The increasing cost of fuel may impact the Company's profitability.

To negate the impact of fuel costs, the Company switched from the use of a fuel-based furnace to an electric arc furnace.

Global Economy

The global economy expanded during 2014 at a moderate and uneven pace, as the prolonged recovery from the global financial crisis was still saddled with post-crisis adjustments. Growth of world gross product was 2.6%, better than the 2.5% registered in 2013, but lower than the 2.9% projected. A salient feature for major developed countries during 2014 was the erratic movements in their quarterly growth rates. Interestingly, for the year as a whole, all major developed economies in North America, Europe and developed Asia aligned on an upward growth trajectory for the first time since 2011. Conversely, the economic situation in Europe was precarious, particularly in the Euro area, with some countries close to recession.

Prospects: In the baseline outlook, further improvement is expected for developed countries, with growth projected to be 2.1 and 2.3% for 2015 and 2016, respectively while the global economy is expected to grow by 3.1 and 3.3% in same time.

Challenges: Unemployment remains extremely high in many countries in the region and headline inflation is at alarmingly low levels. Growth rates in developing countries and economies in transition have become more divergent during 2014. A number of these economies have encountered various country-specific challenges, including structural imbalances, infrastructural bottlenecks, increased financial risks and ineffective macroeconomic management, as well as geopolitical and political tensions. Downside risks remain significant, especially in the Euro area and Japan, which have seen renewed weakness in 2014.

Indian economy

The GDP growth for the fiscal year ending in March 2015 settled at 7.3%, up from 6.9% in 2013-14, a tad lower than an official estimate of 7.4%.

India overtook China to become the world's fastest growing economy by clocking 7.5% GDP for the March quarter, outstripping China's 7%.

Agriculture grew at 0.2% in 2014-15 as against 3.7% in the previous fiscal, while mining and quarrying grew a mere 2.4% compared to 5.4% a year ago. In contrast, trade, hotels, transport, communication and services relating to broadcasting grew at 10.7%, while financial; real estate and professional services grew at 11.5%. In totality, the Industrial sector contributed 30.05% of total India's GVA.

India's current account deficit shrank to some 1.3% of GDP and could well narrow further to 1% of GDP next fiscal. Foreign direct investment hit a high of $34.9 billion in 2015, a massive 61.6% from $21.6 billion in the previous fiscal, according for 1.7% of the GDP, up from 1.1% in the previous year.

According to IMF estimates, India's growth is likely to improve from 7.3% in 2014 to 7.5% both in 2015 and 2016, whereas the Central government looks even more ambitious and has budgeted an 8.1-8.5% GDP growth – sprouting from recent policy reforms, consequent pickups in investment, and lower oil prices.

For a country like India that imports almost 70% of its oil requirements, the fall in prices of global crude oil could have tremendous benefits in the likes of dramatic disinflation, interest rates cut and pickup in consumer demand.

Opportunities and threats

With a renewed hope in the economy amidst the uncertainty and challenges, it was indeed creditable that the Company was able to achieve higher growth rate and profits in FY 14-15, the reasons for which have already been outlined in the Directors' Report.

With a stable central government at the helm, India is going through a paradigm shift. The newly-instated Central Government's growth-inducing policies augur well for the country. The government is prioritising investments in order to usher in infrastructural development, kickstart policy reform and enhance business ease. All these initiatives resulted in the growth of the economy at around 7.3% and the Company was and will attempt to take advantage of the favourable change in scenario. As a means to this end, the Company had already successfully replaced the fuel fire furnace by an electric furnace at its Madhupur unit along with embarking on initiatives to introduce complementary products like beverage (tea and coffee) range. The Company is also aware of the severe competition emanating not only from the international players, but also on the domestic front, from the organised and unorganised sectors alike. These will have to be dealt with better through the formulation of a prudent strategy followed by effective implementation of the same. This will ensure that the Company's market share continues to grow at the projected rate.

Outlook

With the economy recovering, in FY 15-16, the Company expects to continue with the momentum it had achieved in the previous year bearing unforeseen circumstances. To achieve this objective, actions have already been initiated to explore untouched markets, strengthen the distribution network, improve logistics, introduce new product designs and upgrade the quality of the existing portfolio, keeping the pricing tag at an affordable level for the benefit of its customers. Barring unforeseen circumstances, the attitude of the Company appears to be ebullient.

Risks and concerns

Risk accompanies prospects. As a responsible corporate, it is the endeavour of the management to minimise the risks inherent in the business with the view to maximise returns from business situations.

At the heart of La Opala's risk mitigation strategy is a comprehensive and integrated risk management framework that comprises prudential norms, structured reporting and control. This approach ensures that the risk management discipline is centrally initiated by the senior management but prudently decentralized across the Company, percolating to managers at various levels helping them mitigate risks at the transactional level. At La Opala, the risk management team meets periodically to review the key risks which could impact the Company like the increase in global competition, availability of foreign products at low costs, volatile oil prices, and stiff competition from the unorganised sector. Consequently the same team formulates relevant de-risking initiatives and ensures their effective implementation in an ever-evolving external environment.

Internal control systems and their adequacy

The internal control system is a set of rules, procedures and organisational structures that, through a process of identifying, measuring, managing and monitoring the main risks, allows the sound and fair operation of the Company in line with pre-established objectives. As such this process is aimed at pursuing the values of both procedural and substantial fairness, transparency and accountability, which are considered key factors for managing La Opala's business.

Financial performance

The financial statements of La Opala have been prepared in compliance with the requirements of the Companies Act and the applicable Accounting Standards issued by the Institute of Chartered Accountants of India. During the year under review, income from operation amounted to ₹22,866.61 lac compared to ₹18,355.63 lac in 2013-14. Profit before tax for the FY 2014-15 amounted to ₹5,575.51 lac as compared to ₹4,076.05 lac in the previous year.

Industrial relations

Overall the industrial relations of the Company during the year were cordial. Your Directors wish to place on record their sincere appreciation for the devoted services of all the employees and workers of the Company.

Cautionary statement

Statements in the Management's Discussion and Analysis Report describing the Company's projection, estimates, expectations or predictions may be 'forward-looking statements' within the meaning of applicable securities laws and regulations. Actual results could differ materially from those expressed or implied. Important factors that would make a difference to the Company's operations include demand-supply conditions, raw material prices, change in governmental regulations, tax regimes, economic developments within the country and other factors such as litigation and labour negotiations.

Basis of preparation of Financial Statements

The financial statements have been prepared in accordance with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles in India and comply with Accounting Standards notified under the relevant provisions of the Companies Act, 2013. The financial statements have been prepared under the historical cost convention on accrual basis except for subsidy, insurance claim and carbon credit, which are accounted for on cash/ acceptance basis due to uncertainty of realization.

The accounting policies, in all material aspects, have been consistently applied by the company and are consistent with those used in the previous year. The preparation of the financial statements in conformity with Generally Accepted Accounting Principles requires the management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of assets, liabilities and contingent liabilities at the date of financial statements and income and expenses for the reporting period. Estimates and assumptions are reviewed on an ongoing basis.

All assets and liabilities have been classified as current or non-current as per the Company's normal operating cycle and other criteria set out in the Schedule III to the Companies Act, 2013. The Company has ascertained its operating cycle as 12 months for the purpose of current and non-current classification of assets and liabilities.

The significant accounting policies followed by the Company are stated below :

(A) Fixed Assets

Fixed assets except freehold land are stated at cost less accumulated depreciation and impairment losses. Freehold land is carried at cost of acquisition. Cost comprises the purchase price and any attributable cost of bringing the asset to its working condition for its intended use.

Fixed Assets are classified as tangible and intangible assets.

(B) Impairment of assets

The carrying amount of assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date to determine if there is any indication of impairment based on internal or external factors. An impairment loss is recognized wherever the carrying amount of an asset exceeds its recoverable amount, which represents the greater of the net selling price of assets and their "value in use". The estimated future cash flows are discounted to their present value at the weighted average cost of capital. Reversal of impairment loss is recognized immediately as income in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

(C) Depreciation

Depreciation on tangible fixed assets is provided over the useful life of the fixed assets as specified in Schedule II of the Companies Act, 2013 by using Straight Line method. However, fixed assets costing less than ₹5,000 are fully depreciated in the year of addition.

Depreciation on additions / disposals during the year is provided on pro-rata basis with reference to the date of addition / disposal.

Residual value of all tangible and intangible assets is considered at 5% of the original cost.

Leased assets of the Company are amortized over the useful life / operating period of the lease following Accounting Standard (AS)-19.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AS AT AND FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST MARCH, 2015

Intangible assets are amortised over useful life not exceeding 5 years.

(D) Borrowing Costs

Borrowing Costs relating to acquisition/construction of qualifying assets are capitalized until the time of substantial activities necessary to prepare the qualifying assets for their intended use are complete. A qualifying asset is one that necessarily takes substantial period of time to get ready for its intended use. All other borrowing costs are charged to revenue.

(E) Expenditure on New/Expansion Projects

Expenditure directly relating to the construction activity is capitalized. Pre-operative and indirect expenditure incurred during construction period is capitalized as part of indirect construction cost to the extent to which the expenditure is related to the construction or is incidental thereto. Income attributable to the project is deducted from the total of such expenditure.

(F) Leases

Where the Company is the lessee

Finance leases, which effectively transfer to the Company substantially all the risks and benefits incidental to ownership of the leased item, are capitalized at the lower of the fair value and present value of the minimum lease payments at the inception of the lease term and disclosed as leased assets. Lease payments are apportioned between the finance charges and reduction of the lease liability based on the implicit rate of return. Finance charges are charged to Statement of Profit & Loss. Lease management fees, legal charges and other initial direct costs are capitalized.

Capitalized leased assets are depreciated over the shorter of the estimated useful life of the asset or the lease term.

Leases, where the lessor effectively retains substantially all the risks and benefits of ownership of the leased item, are classified as operating leases. Operating lease rentals are recognized as an expense in the Statement of Profit and Loss on a straight-line basis over the lease term.

(G) Grants and Subsidies

Grants and subsidies from the government are recognized when there is reasonable assurance that the grant/subsidy will be received and all attaching conditions will be complied with.

When the grant or subsidy relates to an expense item, it is recognized as income over the periods necessary to match them on a systematic basis to the costs, which it is intended to compensate. Where the grant or subsidy relates to an asset, its value is deducted in arriving at the carrying amount of the related asset.

(H) Investments

Investments that are readily realisable and intended to be held for not more than a year are classified as current investments. All other investments are classified as long-term investments. Current investments are carried at lower of cost and fair value determined on individual investment basis. Long-term investments are carried at cost. However, provision for diminution in value is made to recognise a decline other than temporary in the value of the long term investments.

(I) Inventories

Inventories are valued as follows:

Raw materials, components, stores and spares Lower of cost and net realizable value. However, materials and other items held for use in the production of inventories are written down below cost if the finished products in which they will be incorporated are expected to be sold below cost. Cost is determined on first in first out (FIFO) / Weighted average basis.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AS AT AND FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST MARCH, 2015

Work-in-progress and finished goods Lower of cost and net realizable value. Cost includes direct materials and labour and a proportion of manufacturing overheads based on normal operating capacity. Cost of finished goods includes excise duty.

Net realizable value is the estimated selling price in the ordinary course of business, less estimated costs to complete the sale.

In case of transfer of materials from one division to other, the transfer price is considered as the cost.

(J) Revenue recognition

Revenue is recognized to the extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measured.

Sale of Goods

Revenue is recognised when the significant risks and rewards of ownership of the goods have passed to the buyer, which generally coincides with delivery. The amount recognized is exclusive of Sales Tax, Value Added Tax and Service Tax.

Export Incentives

Export Incentives are accounted for on export of goods in the year of export if the entitlements can be estimated with reasonable accuracy and conditions precedent to claim are fulfilled.

Interest

Revenue is recognised on a time proportion basis taking into account the amount outstanding and the rate applicable.

Dividends

Revenue is recognised when the shareholders' right to receive payment is established by the balance sheet date.

(K) Foreign currency transaction

Monetary assets and liabilities denominated in foreign currency are translated at the year end rates and resultant gains/losses from foreign exchange translation are recognized in the Statement of Profit and Loss.

Forward Exchange Contracts not intended for trading or speculation purposes.

The premium or discount arising at the inception of forward exchange contracts is amortised as expense or income over the life of the contract. Exchange differences on such contracts are recognised in the statement of profit and loss in the year in which the exchange rates change. Any profit or loss arising on cancellation or renewal of forward exchange contract is recognised as income or expense for the year.

(L) Employee Benefits

i. Short Term Employee Benefits.

Short term employee benefits, such as salaries, wages, performance incentives, etc. are recognized as an expense at actual amounts, in the Statement of Profit & Loss of the year in which the related service is rendered. Earned leave accrued during the year is paid after the end of the year and charged to the Statement of Profit & Loss. There is no carry forward of such leave.

NOTES TO THE FINANCIAL STATEMENTS AS AT AND FOR THE YEAR ENDED 31ST MARCH, 2015

ii Post Employment Benefits

(a) Defined contribution plans

Defined contribution plans are Provident Fund Scheme, Employee State Insurance Scheme and Government administered Pension Fund Scheme for the employees. The company makes monthly contributions towards these funds / schemes, which are recognized in the Statement of Profit & Loss in the financial year to which they relate. There is no obligation other than the monthly contributions.

(b) Defined benefit plans

The company has a defined benefit plan for Post-employment benefit in the form of Gratuity for all employees. The plan is administered through Life Insurance Corporation of India (LIC). Liability for above defined benefit plan is provided on the basis of actuarial valuation, as at the Balance Sheet date, carried out by an independent actuary. The actuarial method used for measuring the liability is the Projected Unit Credit method. The company presents its gratuity liability as current and non-current based on actuarial valuation. The fair value of the plan asset is reduced from the gross obligation to disclose the obligation on net basis in the Balance Sheet. Actuarial gains / losses are recognized in the Statement of Profit & Loss of the year.

(M) Income taxes

Tax expense comprises of current tax and deferred tax charge or release. Current income- tax is measured at the amount expected to be paid to the tax authorities in accordance with the Indian Income Tax Act. Deferred income tax reflects the impact of current year's timing differences between taxable income and accounting income for the year and reversal of timing differences of earlier years. Deferred tax is measured based on the tax rates and the tax laws enacted or substantively enacted at the balance sheet date. Deferred tax assets are recognised only to the extent that there is reasonable certainty that sufficient future taxable income will be available against which such deferred tax assets can be realised. Deferred tax asset arising on account of unabsorbed depreciation or carry forward tax losses are recognized only if there is virtual certainty supported by convincing evidence that they can be realized against future taxable profits.

The carrying amount of deferred tax assets are reviewed at each balance sheet date. The company writes down the carrying amount of a deferred tax asset to the extent that it is no longer reasonably or virtually certain, as the case may be, that sufficient income will be available against which deferred tax asset can be realized.

Minimum Alternate Tax (MAT) credit is recognized as an asset only when and to the extent there is convincing evidence that the company will pay normal tax during the specified period. In the year in which MAT credit becomes eligible to be recognized as an asset, an asset is created by way of credit to the statement of profit and loss as MAT credit entitlement. The company reviews the same at each balance sheet date and writes down the carrying amount of MAT Credit Entitlement to the extent there is no longer convincing evidence to that effect that the company will pay normal Income tax during the specified period.

(N) Earnings Per Share

Basic earnings per share are calculated by dividing the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders (after deducting attributable taxes) by the weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period. Partly paid equity shares are treated as a fraction of an equity share to the extent that they were entitled to participate in dividends relative to a fully paid equity share during the reporting period. The weighted average number of equity shares outstanding during the period is adjusted for events of bonus issue, bonus element in a rights issue to existing shareholders, share split, and reverse share split (consolidation of shares).

For the purpose of calculating diluted earnings per share, the net profit or loss for the period attributable to equity shareholders and the weighted average number of shares outstanding during the period are adjusted for the effects of all dilutive potential equity shares.

(O) Provisions

A provision is recognised when an enterprise has a present obligation as a result of past event that probably requires an outflow of resources to settle the obligation, in respect of which a reliable estimate can be made. Provisions are not discounted to its present value and are determined based on best estimate required to settle the obligation at the balance sheet date. These are reviewed at each balance sheet date and adjusted to reflect the current best estimates.
